Northstar Workshop | Document Privacy Standard

Purpose and scope

This standard applies to documents uploaded to the Northstar Workshop knowledge assistant. The evaluation corpus is sy

Redaction

The service redacts detected email addresses and telephone numbers from extracted text before chunking, embedding, re

Original files

Original uploaded files are retained in the configured upload volume for 30 days, then removed by the operator's retention

Access

Only workshop administrators may upload or delete documents. Members may search documents published to their collec

Deletion

An administrator may request removal by document ID. The operator verifies the document is absent from the vector collec

Incident handling

If sensitive material is uploaded accidentally, restrict access, remove the document, and record the incident without copyin